To VIKTOR[i]

TULIP [TYUL'PAN][ii] has informed [us]: "ESTRINA[iii] often sees GNAT [KOMAR][iv], who is dictating his book to her. He consults D.LIN[v] and DON-LEVIN[vi] [C% privately]. So far the biographical part of the book has been composed. G.[K.][vii] is hurrying with the book, being afraid that he may not manage to finish it. G. was a member of the BUKHARIN opposition, but the book will not [B% say] so. G.'s family with the exception of his wife was always anti-soviet in temper. G. is well informed about the KRIVITSKIJ case.
